Visitor Comments: None

Supervisor's Report:

- No new uses of the building.

Highway Commissioner's Report:

- Currently installing a culvert in Byron Hills – may need to do a second one in the same area.
- Received something from Rock Island County meeting- they are planning to shutdown part of highway 84 inside Port Byron. They are suggesting a detour up to 256th Street over to the 71st.
- The new overhead lights have been installed. It took 2 days to install but not that difficult.

Assessor's Report: None

Clerk's Report: None

Trustee Report: None

Cemetery Board:

- One burial at Fairfield Cemetery and they purchased 3 lots also.
- Paul has been receiving good comments from constituents about the cemeteries driveways and appearance.
- Next board meeting is December 8th.

Old Business:

- Discussed the Town Levy – Paul was thinking about raising the cemetery but everyone agreed to wait until the funds were a little lower.
- Discussed the R&B Levy – Rick suggested we maintain the same as last year except for the Bridge and Insurance line items. The Bridge item must be raised if we want to obtain funding from other sources if some major expense occurs. The insurance has gone up slightly each year, so this is to cover the annual premiums.
