Reports

Assessor's Report: They are wrapping up appeals. Jackson Generation is an in person hearing the week of Thanksgiving. Dollar General went to the Board of Review but they rescinded their appeal.

Road Report: Previous HC Buss ordered a new truck in March. At this point in time we might not get the new truck until March. With the supply chain issues, if new equipment needs to be ordered he will want to do that soon. Jackson Township has an intergovernmental agreement with Joliet Township to buy salt from them as we need it. They are going to prepare for winter by putting markers out in neighborhoods.

Town Report:

- Thank you notes from TUFF Training, the Twilighters
- letter from the City of Joliet about the PACE Ride Free Program letting us know our expenses were covered by a grant.
- Audit has been filed.
- TOIRMA is working on whether or not to cover the lawsuit against us by J. Power.
- The Town Fund Levy was discussed. No notice needs to be published, we are asking for less than 5%.
- The Road Levy was discussed. No notice needs to be published, we are asking for less than 5%.
- Thanksgiving baskets will be put together and picked up on November 20th from 9:30am to 11am. He can't guarantee turkeys because of the shortage.
- Jackson Township Toy Drive is December 3rd at Stone City.
- Christmas Light parade is at 5pm on 12/3

Trustee Comments: We took the Charlmar Lighting off the agenda, Coley reported he talked to residents and they will get together in the Spring and decide what to do.
