Item 5A, Supervisor’s Report.

Supervisor Larry Corder reported that due to the passing of Stan Mullins sexton of the cemetery, Nikki is helping out right now with the two workers. Larry said for now since its winter and not lots to do out there we will probably wait and hire someone come Spring. Larry is going to contact Tri State to see if they can do some repair work on the fence at the New Cemetery. The safety meeting this month was about Safe Driving Practices for Employees. Let the record show Kevin Steele interred meeting at 6:11. The interest rates are still at 0.30%. The General Assistance Robinson cases for November 1, 2021 to November 30,2021, pending cases are 3, General Assistance cases approved 7, Emergency Assistance cases approved 4, and 2 denied cases. Total cases including the other townships 10.

Item 5B.

Monty Murray said they are getting things ready for winter, got the plows on now just waiting. He said they did get the mowing done for the last time. He stated that Stan was a good worker and a good man. We all feel the same its just so sad.

Item 5C.

Sue Roberts said she had nothing.

Item 5D

Due to Stan passing away, the two workers at the cemetery will stay in contact with Nikki and Larry. There will be someone hired later to be put in charge. The Clerk asked all of us to take a moment of silence in memory of Stan Mullins.
