NEW BUSINESS

Supervisor Aiello stated they should be hearing something soon regarding the comprehensive study concerning homelessness in Springfield and Sangamon County. He visited with the Washington Street Mission last week and went by there again this morning. They have some programs they are working on, so he will provide updates as the comprehensive plan comes out. They will have Josh Sabo back again as well to give an update on the comprehensive plan. Obviously, the homeless initiative is something that is important to them. They engaged when the pandemic hit and have continued with their efforts. He will also give an update on what the Washington Street Mission and Helping Hands are doing.
