Item 5A, Supervisor’s Report.

Supervisor Larry Corder said the safety meeting this month was on controlling stress. He said we are getting a big screen TV for the conference room for when we start training films and Seminar information. We discussed about having a drop box installed here at the office. The office girls worked on GA for the month of June, there are 8 pending, 4 General Assistance, 1 Emergency Assistance approved and 7 denied cases. The interest rates are holding at 0.90%--1.35%.

Item 5B.

Monty Murray reported that they have been doing several miles of chip and seal. They are replacing a lot of old pipe and culverts due from all the rain and wash outs. They are out spreading hot mix, there’s lots of damaged roads. He said still out mowing due to all the rain lately. Monty said he is waiting on Ameren to get back with him so they can get started on the curve road.

Item 5C.

Sue Roberts-----ABSENT

Item 5D.

Stan Mullins reported they are trying to keep up with all the mowing and trimming. He said they are also working on straightening up some more stones. Stan said the truck bed is done and looks good. Maxwell Concrete finished the pad at the Columbarium and Stan asked for all of us to stop by and see it, he thought they did a good job.
