

How can I reach, social service agencies?

American Red Cross, Quad Cities Chapter provides first aid, CPR and health classes, and disaster assistance to victims and services to military families and veterans.
1110 River Drive, Moline (309) 743-2166

Catholic Charities provides family, marriage and individual counseling.
4703 44th St. Suite 4 Rock Island (309) 788-9581

Lutheran Social Services of Illinois provides a variety of personal and family-related services, including day care for older adults. 4709 44th St. Suite 1 Rock Island, (309) 786-6400

Lutheran Services In Iowa provides family services, foster care and adoption as well as providing run-away counseling. 111 West 15th St Davenport; (563) 322-7419

Safer Foundation helps former adult offenders obtain education, training and employment; works with youth to obtain life skills and a GED. 2827 7th Ave. Rock Island (309) 786-7711 www.safer-foundaton.org.

Salvation Army provides assistance to individuals needing food, clothing or counseling. 2200 5th Ave., Moline; (309) 764-2611 (shelter); (563) 324 4808)

Trinity Visiting Nurses and Homecare Associations provide health-related services through nursing, home health aides, homemakers, and hospice home care.
106 19th Ave. Suite 101, Moline (309) 779-7600

United Way Of the Quad Cities Area provides community leadership across diverse constituencies by investing in local programs to help children succeed, strengthen families and build a stronger community. 3247 E. 35th St. Court, Davenport (563) 355-4310

Project Now, founded in 1968 is a private non-profit community Action Agency, providing a wide range, 01 social service In Rock Island Henry and Mercer Counties. Services are designed to help low-income families and senior citizens meet basic needs and achieve self sufficiency: Programs Include Head Start; outreach; housing, including development, rehabilitation and homebuyers, assistance: energy assistance; homeless services; apartment and commercial property rentals; senior services, such as transportation, congregate meals (home delivered meals), weatherization of homes, Good Things Now, Clothing Stores, The Furniture Connection, business start-up assistance and revolving loan funds. 418 19th St. Rock Island (309) 793-6391.

Family

BridgeWay provides services through the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services such as helping at-risk families, supervising visitations and offering parenting classes. 500 42nd St, Suite 2 Rock Island (309) 786-0064

Marriage and Family Counseling provides marital, premarital and family therapy for English- and Spanish-speaking Individual, couples, and families. 1800 3rd Ave. Suite 512 Rock Island (309) 786-4491

Child Abuse Council helps prevent child abuse through public awareness and parenting education. 525 16th St., Moline; (309) 764-7017
www.childabuseqc.org

Mental Health

Robert Young Center for Community Mental Health serves people with a wide range of therapeutic needs 2701 17th St., Rock Island (309) 779-21300; 4500 3rd St., Moline (309) 779-2031 24-hour crisis line. (309) 779-2999.

Vera French Mental Health Center provides counseling and outreach services- 1441 W. Central Park, Davenport; (563) 383-1900

Youth

Bethany for Children and Families services include adoption, foster care, pregnancy support, individual counseling, in-home family counseling, juvenile-justice diversion services, therapeutic recreation program, teen-parent services, the family loan program, day treatment, and individual development accounts. 1630 6th Ave Moline (309) 797-7700

Boys and Girls Clubs of the Mississippi Valley provides a safe environment and positive alternatives for youths- 406 7th St. Moline (309) 757-5177; 1702 Iowa St., Davenport, (563) 324-5673

Boy Scouts of America, IOWA Council provides citizenship training, character development and personal fitness to boys ages 6-21, girls ages 14-21, parents, and volunteers; Operates Camp Loud Thunder. 4711 N. Brady St. Suite 200, Davenport; (563) 388-7233; www.illowabsa.org

Girl Scouts of the Mississippi Valley Scouting programs build character and leadership skills for girls ages 4-17. 2011 2nd Ave Rock Island; (309) 786-0833 www.girlscouts-mvc.org

United Neighbors Inc. provides central-city youth with social-development programs, rehabilitation programs, crisis intervention, HUD counseling and the Dream program. 808 N. Harrison St. Davenport; (563) 322.7363

Youth Services Bureau of Rock Island County serves young people and assists families with child-related difficulties through counseling, and offers In-home family therapy and a delinquency-prevention program. 4709 44th St. Suite 5, Rock Island. (309) 793-3460

Christian Friendliness provides a ministry to low-income, un-churched kids and -teens through outreaches in housing complexes, schools, and neighborhoods. It features, two youth centers with tutoring, recreation, leadership development, and refuge from the street and Camp Summit, a camp 35 minutes from their urban neighborhoods. 3928 12th Ave Moline. (309) 762-4577;
ChristianFriendliness@juno.com or www.christianfriendliness.org

Veterans

Veteran Affairs Department a helpline for veteran benefits 1504 3rd Ave., Rock Island; (309) 793-1460